Ready to take on the world

WELCOME

Graduation is an exciting milestone in a person's life and today is a day when you, your families and friends come together to celebrate this significant achievement. For me and my staff colleagues, each graduation is a unique opportunity to mark your success and celebrate with you in person.

Today marks the culmination of a long period of learning and a goal realised. The sense of pride and excitement you feel is shared by all your peers present today. You are a diverse and talented group of people with unique attributes, skills and knowledge that will help you make a positive difference to the communities in which you will work and live, be they here in Scotland or beyond.

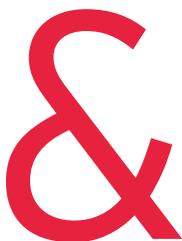

As you progress in your careers, please maintain your connection to Edinburgh Napier University. Help shape our future as valued alumni and take pride in us as we do in you.

I hope that you will always see yourselves as part of our family: our growing reputation and success will be built in no small manner by your achievements.

My warm congratulations to each and every one of you. I wish you every success and happiness in your future lives.

Professor Andrea M Nolan OBE
Principal & Vice-Chancellor

CONGRATULATIONS

It is an honour and a privilege to present you with your awards today – ones I know you have worked so hard to achieve against a background of unprecedented challenges.

I'm now in my third year of graduations as Chancellor of Edinburgh Napier University. At each ceremony, I have been so impressed by everything I have seen – it's very different from the small institution that existed when I was a wee boy growing up in the city. There is so much going for this place, not least the terrific teaching.

In my conversations with alumni, it has been fantastic to see the vital roles Edinburgh Napier graduates are performing across society. Your predecessors are innovating, leading, and making a difference in so many sectors. It has emphasised in my mind that the quality of your degree will stand you in good stead for making the most of the opportunities that will come your way.

My career was very much founded on my education, as a basis for continuing to learn, and I hope yours will be too. No one can predict the future, what is going to happen to the economy or to the planet, but the skills and the knowledge with which you have graduated will help you navigate life and your career with confidence.

Congratulations and best wishes for the future.

Will Whitehorn
University Chancellor

CEREMONIAL INFORMATION

Gowns with differing colours are worn at the ceremony. Members of University Court wear a black academic gown with Edinburgh Napier tartan facings. Academic staff wear gowns from their awarding university.

Undergraduate Diploma/Certificate

These graduands wear a black gown with a black and red hood.

Undergraduate Degree

Undergraduates wear a black academic gown and red hood.

Postgraduate Diploma/Certificate

Postgraduates wear a black academic gown. The hood is black and dark blue with a narrow red trim.

Masters

Masters graduands wear a black academic gown. The hood is black and dark blue with a wide red trim.

Master Of Philosophy (MPhil) and Master by Research (MRES)

These graduands wear a black academic gown. The hood is black and red with a wide blue trim.

Doctor Of Philosophy (PhD) and Doctor of Business Administration (DBA)

These graduands wear a red academic gown. The hood is black and red with a wide blue trim.

Honorary Graduates' Book

The first Honorary Graduates' Book was presented to the University by the previous Principal & Vice-Chancellor Professor Dame Joan K Stringer DBE at her Inauguration ceremony in November 2003. The Honorary Graduates' Book sits next to the Mace at all graduation ceremonies, and the signing of the book forms part of the ceremony for new Honorary Graduates and Fellows.

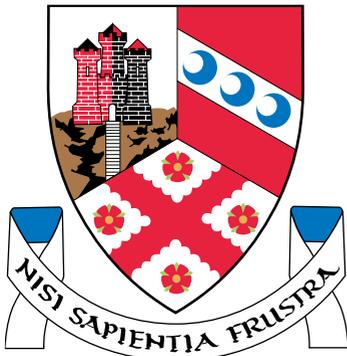

REGALIA

University Tartan

The Edinburgh Napier tartan was designed for the University by Kinloch Anderson, tailors and kiltmakers by Royal Appointment and based on Clan Napier tartan.

The sett has been adapted to reflect the features and colours of our Coat of Arms with red predominant against a white background.

The Edinburgh Napier tartan is registered with the Scottish Register of Tartans.

The Mace

The Mace leads the Chancellor's Procession. It was presented to the University by Sir Donald and Lady McCallum on 7 July 1989. Sir Donald McCallum was the first Honorary Graduate of Edinburgh Napier University, when he received a Doctor of Science in July 1986.

The Mace was made by Christie's of Edinburgh and bears the names of the Honorary Graduates. The Mace is carried at all ceremonial and formal occasions at which the Chancellor or Vice Chancellor of the University is present.

The University Motto

*Without wisdom,
all is in vain.*

Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of Edinburgh Napier University was designed by the Court of the Lord Lyon. The shield is split into three sections, each of which reflects a different part of our heritage, including our association with John Napier and the City of Edinburgh.

The first section, on the top left of the Shield, a triple towered castle, is an allusion to our location in the City of Edinburgh.

Moving in a clockwise direction, section two contains three crescent moons and celebrates our connections to Napier Merchiston.

The third section/division displays a red saltire scalloped between four red roses, an allusion to later Arms of Napier.

HONORARY GRADUATE

Professor Dame Anne Marie Rafferty DBE

Doctor of Nursing

Laureator: Dr Liz Adamson, Associate Professor, School of Health & Social Care

Anne Marie was born in Fife, Scotland. She qualified and worked in Edinburgh as deputy sister at the Royal Infirmary of Edinburgh before moving to a clinical academic post at Nottingham's Queen's Medicine Centre. Her thesis won the 3M/Nursing Times Prize for Research. She then went on to Oxford University to study for a doctorate in modern history.

Returning to Nottingham to lecture she then won a prestigious Harkness Fellowship in Health Policy to study political leadership in nursing at the University of Pennsylvania. Following that experience, she returned to the London School of Hygiene & Tropical Medicine to head a think tank on research policy before being appointed dean and professor of health & nursing policy at the Florence Nightingale Faculty of Nursing & Midwifery at King's College London.

She was also elected president of the Royal College of Nursing between 2019 and 2021. As a historian and international expert on health workforce policy, Anne Marie holds fellowships from the Royal College of Nursing (FRCN), the American Academy of Nursing (FAAN), the Academy of Medical Sciences (FMedSci) (UK) and the National Academy of Science and Medicine (USA).

She was seconded to the Department of Health to work on reform of the NHS with Lord Ara Darzi, and was a member of the Prime Minister's Commission on the future of nursing & midwifery under Gordon Brown, as well as being involved with the Welsh government's reform of health and social care in Wales. Anne Marie is currently a member of the Times Health Commission on the future of the NHS.

Dr Carol Marsh OBE

Doctor of the University

Laureator: Professor Peter Andras, Dean of School of Computing, Engineering & the Built Environment

Dr Carol Marsh is head of digital systems at Celestia UK, expanding the digital systems capabilities for electronically scanned gateways and terminals which augment Celestia UK's RF and antenna expertise. She was deputy head of electronics engineering at Leonardo, an executive role, overseeing the business's electronic processes, tools and resource planning.

She has worked in the field of electronics for 40 years, specializing in programmable logic. Carol is an alumnus of Edinburgh Napier University (ENU), receiving an HND with distinction in electrical and electronic engineering in 1985.

Carol received the degree of Doctor of Engineering in system level integration from the Universities of Strathclyde, Glasgow, Edinburgh and Heriot-Watt in 2011.

Carol is a Royal Academy of Engineering visiting professor at ENU, vice president and trustee of the Institution of Engineering and Technology (IET), chair of the IET Volunteer Engagement Board and the Engineering Policy Group Scotland, a member of the Hammermen of Edinburgh Deacon's committee, a Burgess of the City of Edinburgh, past president of the Women's Engineering Society, a professional registration advisor and interviewer and a STEM ambassador.

Carol has won several technology and diversity awards and was awarded an OBE in 2020 for services to diversity and inclusion.

HISTORY

1550 John Napier, the inventor of logarithms and the decimal point, is born in the medieval tower house of Merchiston Castle.

1958 Restoration work begins to make Merchiston Tower the focal point for a new college to be named after John Napier.

1964 Napier Technical College opens its doors to students at Merchiston.

1967 Renamed Napier College of Science & Technology.

1974 Edinburgh College of Commerce and Napier merge to become Napier College of Commerce and Technology.

1986 Napier acquires the former St. Andrew's College at Craiglockhart.

1992 The institution officially becomes Napier University.

1996 A new Faculty of Health Studies is created.

2001 The £7m Jack Kilby Centre, a purpose-built 500 PC computer lab with 24-hour access, is opened at Merchiston.

2003 Professor Joan K Stringer is inaugurated as Principal & Vice-Chancellor and becomes the first female Principal of a Scottish university.

2005 Screen Academy Scotland is opened, a collaboration between Napier University and the Edinburgh College of Art.

2009 The University successfully launches its new title, Edinburgh Napier University.

2011 The University opens its new £60m state-of-the-art Sighthill Campus.

2013 Professor Andrea Nolan joins the University as Principal & Vice-Chancellor.

John Napier bronze sculpture

2014 Edinburgh Napier University celebrates 50 years as an institution of learning.

2017 A memorial service, exhibition and public lecture are held to mark the 400th anniversary of the passing of John Napier.

2019 The University achieves four stars overall in the prestigious QS Stars University Ratings, scoring a maximum five stars in three categories: teaching, employability and internationalisation.

2020/1 Edinburgh Napier was ranked the top modern university in Scotland in The Times/Sunday Times Good University Guide 2021 and 2022 and was number one in Edinburgh for student satisfaction for two years running in the National Student Survey.

2022 In March 2022, we celebrated 30 years of being a modern university.
