Ready to take on the world

WELCOME

Graduation is an exciting milestone in a person's life and today is a day when you, your families and friends come together to celebrate this significant achievement. For me and my staff colleagues, each graduation is a unique opportunity to mark your success and celebrate with you in person.

Today marks the culmination of a long period of learning and a goal realised. The sense of pride and excitement you feel is shared by all your peers present today. You are a diverse and talented group of people with unique attributes, skills and knowledge that will help you make a positive difference to the communities in which you will work and live, be they here in Scotland or beyond.

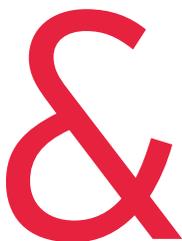

As you progress in your careers, please maintain your connection to Edinburgh Napier University. Help shape our future as valued alumni and take pride in us as we do in you.

I hope that you will always see yourselves as part of our family: our growing reputation and success will be built in no small manner by your achievements.

My warm congratulations to each and every one of you. I wish you every success and happiness in your future lives.

Principal & Vice-Chancellor

CONGRATULATIONS

It is an honour and a privilege to present you with your awards today – ones I know you have worked so hard to achieve against a background of unprecedented challenges.

I'm now in my third year of graduations as Chancellor of Edinburgh Napier University. At each ceremony, I have been so impressed by everything I have seen – it's very different from the small institution that existed when I was a wee boy growing up in the city. There is so much going for this place, not least the terrific teaching.

In my conversations with alumni, it has been fantastic to see the vital roles Edinburgh Napier graduates are performing across society. Your predecessors are innovating, leading, and making a difference in so many sectors. It has emphasised in my mind that the quality of your degree will stand you in good stead for making the most of the opportunities that will come your way.

My career was very much founded on my education, as a basis for continuing to learn, and I hope yours will be too. No one can predict the future, what is going to happen to the economy or to the planet, but the skills and the knowledge with which you have graduated will help you navigate life and your career with confidence.

Congratulations and best wishes for the future.

Will Whitehorn
University Chancellor

Some graduands have elected to have their names omitted from the online publication of names.

As part of our Environmental Sustainability Strategy, the University is reducing its carbon footprint by moving the publication of the graduate names online.

Honorary Graduates' Book

The first Honorary Graduates' Book was presented to the University by the previous Principal & Vice-Chancellor Professor Dame Joan K Stringer DBE at her Inauguration ceremony in November 2003. The Honorary Graduates' Book sits next to the Mace at all graduation ceremonies, and the signing of the book forms part of the ceremony for new Honorary Graduates and Fellows.

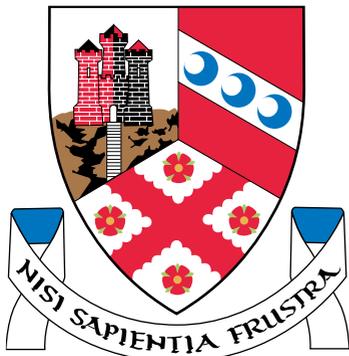

REGALIA

University Tartan

The Edinburgh Napier tartan was designed for the University by Kinloch Anderson, tailors and kiltmakers by Royal Appointment and based on Clan Napier tartan.

The sett has been adapted to reflect the features and colours of our Coat of Arms with red predominant against a white background.

The Edinburgh Napier tartan is registered with the Scottish Register of Tartans.

The Mace

The Mace leads the Chancellor's Procession. It was presented to the University by Sir Donald and Lady McCallum on 7 July 1989. Sir Donald McCallum was the first Honorary Graduate of Edinburgh Napier University, when he received a Doctor of Science in July 1986.

The Mace was made by Christie's of Edinburgh and bears the names of the Honorary Graduates. The Mace is carried at all ceremonial and formal occasions at which the Chancellor or Vice Chancellor of the University is present.

The University Motto

*Without wisdom,
all is in vain.*

Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of Edinburgh Napier University was designed by the Court of the Lord Lyon. The shield is split into three sections, each of which reflects a different part of our heritage, including our association with John Napier and the City of Edinburgh.

The first section, on the top left of the Shield, a triple towered castle, is an allusion to our location in the City of Edinburgh.

Moving in a clockwise direction, section two contains three crescent moons and celebrates our connections to Napier Merchiston.

The third section/division displays a red saltire scalloped between four red roses, an allusion to later Arms of Napier.

She was one of the four founders of Edinburgh as first UNESCO City of Literature. She has served as a committee member of the Association of Authors' Agents and has twice been shortlisted for Agent of the Year Award. She was the founding Chair of the Bloody Scotland crime writing festival. She is Vice-Chair of Edinburgh International Book Festival. HONORARY GRADUATE

Nicky Wilson

Doctor of the University

Born in Edinburgh, Nicky attended Camberwell College of Art where she received a BA (Hons) in Sculpture. She went on to complete her MA in Sculpture at Chelsea School of Art and was awarded a British School at Rome Scholarship in Sculpture.

After subsequent training in advertising, marketing and PR, Nicky worked at LSDC Ayer and then at the renowned WCRS Creative Agency. She continued with her sculptural practice until 2011 when she began to develop a collection of contemporary art.

In 2009, Jupiter Artland was founded. It has since grown into one of Scotland's most significant arts organisations and was nominated for ArtFund's Museum of the Year in 2016. Through its learning and outreach programme, Jupiter Artland aims to engage with every child in Scotland by offering free school visits throughout the year. In 2017, Nicky founded Jupiter Rising, a festival of avant-garde music, art and film for young artists and performers from diverse backgrounds, and in 2018 she founded the ORBIT Youth Council, a creative collective for 16 to 18-year-olds from all over Scotland. Most recently, Jupiter+ was founded as an offsite commissioning programme designed to inspire the next generation of artists.
