Applicant Visit Day

Edinburgh Napier
UNIVERSITY

Wednesday 13th April 2016
School of Arts and Creative Industries

Welcome to our Applicant Visit Day

Congratulations on receiving an offer of a place to study with us. We hope you enjoy your visit to our Merchiston Campus which is home to our School of Arts & Creative Industries.

Our School provides a creative, supportive and lively community with active, experienced professionals and researchers. Our facilities, industry links and innovative teaching combine to produce award-winning graduates. We are one of the top UK modern universities for English and the top Scottish modern university for Journalism, Publishing, Media and Film Studies*. Our staff and students will be on hand throughout the event to provide information and offer advice on all aspects of life here at Edinburgh Napier. The day will enable you to find out more about the opportunities that studying in the School of Arts and Creative Industries can provide including work placements, study abroad opportunities, and the chance to engage with our academic staff whom are experts in their fields.

Please also make sure you pick up our Applicant Guide which provides more information about why you should choose to study with us as well as helpful practical information about student funding, accommodation and the next steps in the process.

Timetable of Events

To make sure you get the most out of today, we have organised for a range of presentations and activities to take place. Please use this timetable as a handy guide for today's event, although our student ambassadors will be on hand to guide you around campus throughout the day.
