WELCOME & CONGRATULATIONS

Graduation is an exciting milestone in a person's life and today is a day when you, your families and friends come together to celebrate this significant achievement. For all the University staff, each graduation is a unique opportunity to highlight your success and celebrate with you in person. For me, this ceremony will be a particularly memorable one, marking the final summer gradation I will have the honour and pleasure of presiding over as Principal of Edinburgh Napier University.

Today marks the culmination of a long period of learning and a goal realised. The sense of pride and excitement you feel is shared by all your peers present today. You belong to a diverse and talented group of people with unique attributes, skills and knowledge that will help you make a positive difference to the communities in which you will work and live, be they here in Scotland or beyond.

As you progress in your careers, please maintain your connection to Edinburgh Napier University. Help shape our future as valued alumni and take pride in us as we will continue to do in you. I hope that you will always see yourselves as part of our community: our growing reputation and success will be built in no small manner by your achievements.

My warm congratulations to each and every one of you. I wish you fulfilment and happiness in your future lives.

Professor Andrea M Nolan CBE
Principal & Vice-Chancellor

It is an honour and a privilege to present you with your awards today – ones I know you have worked so hard to achieve.

I've been attending graduations as Chancellor of Edinburgh Napier University since 2021. At each ceremony, I have been so impressed by everything I have seen – it's very different from the small institution that existed when I was a wee boy growing up in the city. There is so much going for this place, not least the terrific teaching.

In my conversations with alumni, it has been fantastic to see the vital roles Edinburgh Napier graduates are performing across society. Your predecessors are everywhere – innovating, leading, and making a difference in so many sectors. It has emphasised in my mind that the quality of your degree will stand you in good stead for making the most of the opportunities that will come your way.

My career was very much founded on my education, as a basis for continuing to learn, and I hope yours will be too. No one can predict the future, what is going to happen to the economy or to the planet, but the skills and the knowledge with which you have graduated will help you navigate life and your career with confidence.

Congratulations and best wishes for the future.

University Chancellor

University Tartan

The Edinburgh Napier tartan was designed for the University by Kinloch Anderson, tailors and kiltmakers by Royal Appointment and based on Clan Napier tartan.

The sett has been adapted to reflect the features and colours of our Coat of Arms with red predominant against a white background.

The Edinburgh Napier tartan is registered with the Scottish Register of Tartans.

The Mace

The Mace leads the Chancellor's Procession. It was presented to the University by Sir Donald and Lady McCallum on 7 July 1989. Sir Donald McCallum was the first Honorary Graduate of Edinburgh Napier University, when he received a Doctor of Science in July 1986.

The Mace was made by Christie's of Edinburgh and bears the names of the Honorary Graduates. The Mace is carried at all ceremonial and formal occasions at which the Chancellor or Vice Chancellor of the University is present.

The University Motto

Without wisdom,
all is in vain.

Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of Edinburgh Napier University was designed by the Court of the Lord Lyon. The shield is split into three sections, each of which reflects a different part of our heritage, including our association with John Napier and the City of Edinburgh.

The first section, on the top left of the Shield, a triple towered castle, is an allusion to our location in the City of Edinburgh.

Moving in a clockwise direction, section two contains three crescent moons and celebrates our connections to Napier Merchiston.

The third section/division displays a red saltire scalloped between four red roses, an allusion to later Arms of Napier.

Lady Elish Angiolini

LT DBE PC KC

Doctor of the University

Laureator: Professor Richard Whitecross,
Head of Law, The Business School

Elish is a distinguished Scottish lawyer and public servant renowned for her pioneering contributions to the legal profession. Born on June 24, 1960, in Govan, Glasgow, she embarked on her legal career after graduating from the University of Strathclyde with an LLB (Hons). Her career is marked by several historic firsts and notable achievements.

In 2001, Elish became the first woman and the first solicitor to be appointed as Solicitor General for Scotland, a position she held until 2006. Her tenure was notable for her efforts to reform the prosecution of sex crimes and domestic violence, enhancing victim support and advocacy.

In 2006, she broke another barrier by becoming the first woman to serve as Lord Advocate, Scotland's Chief Law Officer. During her time as Lord Advocate, Elish was instrumental in modernising the Scottish legal system, particularly in the areas of witness support and the law of evidence.

After leaving the role of Lord Advocate in 2011, she has continued to have an impact on public life through various roles, including as Principal of St Hugh's College and Pro-Vice-Chancellor of the University of Oxford, and chairing significant inquiries such as the Independent Review into Deaths and Serious Incidents in Police Custody in 2017 and the murder of Sarah Everard by Wayne Couzens in 2024.

Lady Elish Angiolini's contributions have been widely recognised. She was appointed Dame Commander of the Order of the British Empire (DBE) in 2011 and was made a Lady of the Thistle by Her Majesty the Queen in 2022, reflecting her enduring influence on the Scottish and broader UK legal landscape.

Alexander Poots CBE

Doctor of Arts

Laureator: Professor Haftor Medbøe,
School of Arts and Creative Industries

Alex Poots is an arts and cultural leader who has built major new organisations from the ground up and who has inspired established ones to reshape their familiar approaches into more innovative, popular and culturally democratic cultural programs.

Alex was appointed in 2015 as the Founding Artistic Director and CEO of The Shed in NYC, following a decade creating, launching and leading Manchester International Festival (MIF) in the UK. At these organizations, as well at Park Avenue Armory in NYC and the Barbican Centre and Tate Galleries in London, Alex has conceived and developed new ways for arts organisations to realize their missions and visions—commissioning and presenting established and early-career artists and creatives across disciplines and regions, often in new collaborations, and welcoming a range of audiences of all backgrounds to discover their work.

Alex has forged enduring and fruitful relationships with artists and creatives, from composers to pop artists, theatre directors to filmmakers, writers to visual artists, technologists to thinkers. In the process, he has supported them to evolve artistic formats and realise ambitious projects, drawing large audiences in the process. By questioning established artistic structures and societal constructs, Alex works to bring together creative practices and audiences in new combinations—facilitating, originating and promoting artistic invention and cultural transformation through the organisations he leads.
