GRADUATION

24

Usher Hall, 29-31 October

WELCOME & CONGRATULATIONS

Graduation is an exciting milestone in a person's life and today is a day when you, your families and friends come together to celebrate this significant achievement. For all the University staff, each graduation is a unique opportunity to highlight your success and celebrate with you in person. For me, these autumn ceremonies will be particularly memorable, marking the final Edinburgh graduations I will have the honour and pleasure of presiding over as Principal of Edinburgh Napier University.

Today marks the culmination of a long period of learning and, for each of you, a goal realised. The sense of pride and excitement you feel is shared by all your peers present today. You belong to a diverse and talented group of people with unique attributes, skills and knowledge that will help you make a positive difference to the communities in which you will work and live, be they here in Scotland or beyond.

As you progress in your careers, please maintain your connection to Edinburgh Napier University. Help shape our future as valued alumni and take pride in us as we will continue to do in you. I hope that you will always see yourselves as part of our community: our growing reputation and success will be built in no small manner by your achievements.

My warm congratulations to each and every one of you. I wish you fulfilment and happiness in your future lives.

A handwritten signature in black ink, reading "Andrea M Nolan". The signature is fluid and cursive, with a large, stylized 'A' and 'N'.

Professor Andrea M Nolan CBE
Principal & Vice-Chancellor

It is an honour and a privilege to present you with your awards today – ones I know you have worked so hard to achieve.

I've been attending graduations as Chancellor of Edinburgh Napier University since 2021. At each ceremony, I have been so impressed by everything I have seen – it's very different from the small institution that existed when I was a wee boy growing up in the city. There is so much going for this place, not least the terrific teaching.

In my conversations with alumni, it has been fantastic to see the vital roles Edinburgh Napier graduates are performing across society. Your predecessors are everywhere – innovating, leading, and making a difference in so many sectors. It has emphasised in my mind that the quality of your degree will stand you in good stead for making the most of the opportunities that will come your way.

My career was very much founded on my education, as a basis for continuing to learn, and I hope yours will be too. No one can predict the future, what is going to happen to the economy or to the planet, but the skills and the knowledge with which you have graduated will help you navigate life and your career with confidence.

Congratulations and best wishes for the future.

Will Whitehorn
University Chancellor

Honorary Graduates' Book

The first Honorary Graduates' Book was presented to the University by the previous Principal & Vice-Chancellor Professor Dame Joan K Stringer DBE at her Inauguration ceremony in November 2003. The Honorary Graduates' Book sits next to the Mace at all graduation ceremonies, and the signing of the book forms part of the ceremony for new Honorary Graduates and Fellows.

REGALIA

University Tartan

The Edinburgh Napier tartan was designed for the University by Kinloch Anderson, tailors and kiltmakers by Royal Appointment and based on Clan Napier tartan.

The sett has been adapted to reflect the features and colours of our Coat of Arms with red predominant against a white background.

The Edinburgh Napier tartan is registered with the Scottish Register of Tartans.

The Mace

The Mace leads the Chancellor's Procession. It was presented to the University by Sir Donald and Lady McCallum on 7 July 1989. Sir Donald McCallum was the first Honorary Graduate of Edinburgh Napier University, when he received a Doctor of Science in July 1986.

The Mace was made by Christie's of Edinburgh and bears the names of the Honorary Graduates. The Mace is carried at all ceremonial and formal occasions at which the Chancellor or Vice Chancellor of the University is present.

The University Motto

Without wisdom,
all is in vain.

Coat of Arms

The Coat of Arms of Edinburgh Napier University was designed by the Court of the Lord Lyon. The shield is split into three sections, each of which reflects a different part of our heritage, including our association with John Napier and the City of Edinburgh.

The first section, on the top left of the Shield, a triple towered castle, is an allusion to our location in the City of Edinburgh.

Moving in a clockwise direction, section two contains three crescent moons and celebrates our connections to Napier Merchiston.

The third section/division displays a red saltire scalloped between four red roses, an allusion to later Arms of Napier.
