

Travel – How to get here

BY AIR

Edinburgh International Airport

8 miles
from city centre

157

Destinations

UK, Ireland, Europe and worldwide.

227 routes
37 airlines

54

Daily flights to London

3

Airport
lounges

24hr

Open 365
days a year

Every 10 mins
Delegates can catch a shuttle bus or tram to city centre

Under 30 mins
by bus, tram or taxi to city centre

14.3M
passengers in 2018

BY RAIL

Waverley Station and Haymarket Station

2nd largest in UK after London Waterloo

23 million
passenger entry and exits

1.4 miles
From the EICC

18

Platforms

23

Average daily
trains to London

4.25hrs

Lowest travel time to London Kings X

BY ROAD

Motorways and a network of quiet trunk roads ensure Edinburgh is easily accessible by road.

Please see the map on next pages for car park locations.

Travel – Getting around the city

BY TRAM

Edinburgh Tram network

Nearest tram stop to EICC is 650 metres

Daily trams between 5.30am & 11.30pm

Every 7 mins

From Edinburgh Airport
to York Place

Under 30 mins

to city centre

BY FOOT

Edinburgh is a compact city, so one of the easiest ways to get around is to walk. There are hundreds of accommodation options within a 20 minute walk of the EICC, making it a very short commute on foot for delegates.

BY BUS

Edinburgh's regular and reliable bus service

£1.80

For any route
around the city

Contactless payment on all buses

Fleet of 700
buses

70
routes in and around the city

dozens of bus routes stopping right by EICC

BY BIKE

Edinburgh is a cycle-friendly city with off-road bike paths, cycle lanes, forward stop lines at traffic lights, and lower speed limits in the city centre.

Spaces for 30

bikes, to front
& rear of EICC

Getting around by foot

Getting Around

Transport in the city is simple, buses, trams and taxis are in plentiful supply.

Once in the city centre the majority of attractions and accommodation can be reached on foot in under 15 minutes.

